

The Hare and the Tortoise

One day the Hare laughed at the short feet and slow speed of the Tortoise. The Tortoise replied:

"You may be as fast as the wind, but I will beat you in a race!"

The Hare thought this idea was impossible and he agreed to the proposal. It was agreed that the Fox should choose the course and decide the end. So far so good.

The day for the race came, and the Tortoise and Hare started together.

- Point 1
- Point 2
- Point 3

The Tortoise never stopped for a moment, she walked slowly but steadily, easy does it, right to the end of the course. The Hare ran fast and stopped to lie down for a rest. But he fell fast asleep. Eventually, he woke up and ran as fast as he could. To make a long story short, when he reached the end, he saw the Tortoise there already, sleeping comfortably after her effort.
